

Thank you for choosing to support the Red Dress Fun Run 2025 and help local people living with chest, heart and stroke conditions in Northern Ireland.

Primary Schools Competition T&Cs

All primary schools who register and complete a Red Dress Fun Run during January, February or March 2025 and raise funds for the charity Northern Ireland Chest Heart and Stroke of the suggested amount of £1 per pupil participating, will be entered into the prize draw to take place week commencing Monday 31st March. One winner will be selected at random from all qualifying registered schools to receive a £250 voucher for Podium4Sport and an online Heartley's Heroes Talk from the NICHS Schools Promotion Team and two runners up will be drawn at random to receive a £75 voucher and online Heartley's Heroes Talk.

All schools participating must register to take part before the closing date of Friday 7th March 2025. This competition is only open to primary schools and special schools located in Northern Ireland.

No cash alternative. NICHS decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into. Winners will be notified and prizes will be dispatched as soon as possible after the prize draw. The Heartley's Heroes online talk is subject to availability and will be delivered during the summer or autumn term of school year 2025 at an agreed time and date between NICHS and the primary school.

NICHS, its employees, agents and volunteers accept no liability in connection with your participation in this event when it comes to any loss or damage of any kind, including loss of profits, loss of business, loss or damage to goodwill, or indirect or consequential loss caused by or connected with your participation in the event. This excludes any liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents and volunteers, fraud, or any other liability that cannot be excluded by law.

For all events, anyone taking part under 18 years old will need parental consent. It's up to parents and guardians to decide if the event is appropriate for their child.
